DOUGLASS FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

All applications must be submitted by Friday, June 5, 2009

Through the generosity of the Douglass Foundation, scholarships are offered to qualified seminarians and other graduate-level students. The purpose of the Douglass Foundation Scholarship Program is to encourage qualified college graduates to seek advanced degrees in the fields of theology, business, and psychology. The Scholarship Committee (the "Committee") at the Bishop Jones Center administers the Douglass Scholarship Program on behalf of the Douglass Foundation. These scholarships are granted annually and applicants must reapply.

To be eligible, seminarian applicants must be:

- Canonically resident in the Diocese of West Texas
- Enrolled as a postulant in one of the accredited seminaries of the Episcopal Church, located in the United States, and approved by the Bishop of the Diocese of West Texas
- Have applied for financial aid to at least three other entities
- Demonstrate evidence of financial need

To be eligible, other applicants must be:

- An active member of an Episcopal Church in the Diocese of West Texas
- Be accepted in a program of graduate study leading to a degree in the fields of theology, business, or psychology from an accredited educational institution
- Show evidence of potential for excellence
- Be under the age of 45 years
- Be of high moral character
- Demonstrate evidence of financial need

In order for your application to be considered, the following must be submitted:

- Completed application form (including page 4, Income and Expense Budgeting Worksheet)
- Copy of your college transcripts
- Copy of score reports on your college graduate entrance exams (GRE or GMAT)
- Copy of your graduate school degree plan developed by student and counselor (with name of degree and semester hours/years to attain degree)
- Copy of your last year's federal income tax return
- Specific amount requested
- Letter that "tells your story" - The purpose of this letter is to fully acquaint the Committee with who you are, what your life experiences have been, how you came to want to pursue the priesthood or graduate field, something about your financial situation, and any other information you would like to share with the Committee. This personal letter should be submitted along with the application form and the other required supporting documents.

By submitting this application, I hereby grant to the Committee full authority and permission to obtain any information it deems necessary from administrative officials at schools I have attended or plan to attend. I acknowledge and agree that the Committee has sole authority and sole discretion to make Douglass Scholarship awards; that the statements made in my application are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief and in the event of a change in my circumstances after the date of submission of this application, I will submit a supplement to the application to reflect such change in circumstances.
