“As a teenager "new folk" was what excited me the most...Joan Baez, Tom Rush, Richard and Mimi Farina, Phil Ochs, Peter, Paul and Mary. Probably the biggest influence was Bob Dylan and his electric band at the Newport Folk Festival. Shook the earth for me. I took a little corner of the basement in our house...turned it into a tiny coffee house with candles, etc. where I would sit by myself and listen to Herbie Mann, Thelonius

“I came through that time with an awareness that music was very important to me, that I'd been given a gift...that I could sing, play, connect with people through music. Something I couldn't just walk away from. So I began to work with young people in a network under the aegis of the Episcopal Church. I continue to be involved in this area...it is very fulfilling and I've met some truly wonderful people over the years. Seekers...bright, thoughtful and caring folks working to make the world a better place.”

I have been listening to Fran's music for years. He has an uncanny ability to weave the gospel into his music in powerful ways. His imagery touches your heart and speaks to your faith. Fran's faith is on display every time he picks up the guitar. He is a treat to work with and a joy to listen to. There is no one I would recommend more to learn from for anyone who is interested in church music.
